

Thirty-Third Congress—First Session.

WASHINGTON, Friday, July 21.
SENATE.—Mr. Chase presented several petitions praying for the abolition of Slavery in the District of Columbia.

Mr. Geyer introduced a bill, fixing a time for the meeting of next Congress. Laid on the table.

Mr. Geyer's bill provides for the assembling of Congress on the first Monday of November next.

The Homestead bill was then taken up.

Mr. Shields said he had adhered to the House bill as long as there were any hopes of it. In 1845, when at the head of the Land Office, he had recommended the graduation system, as proposed by this bill.

Mr. Cooper said he was opposed to both the Homestead bill, and the bill as it now stood. He would not vote, however, having paired off with the Senator from New York.

Mr. Douglas said the principles of the Graduation and of the Homestead bill to actual settlers, were both favorite measures of the people of Illinois; and as this bill secured them both, he had no difficulty in voting for it.

Mr. Stuart contended that this bill did not abandon the Homestead principle, but secured it.

Messrs. Badger and Tombs continued the debate as to the constitutional powers of Congress over the public lands.

Mr. Chase said he would vote for the measure, because it was the best he could get.

The bill was then read a third time and passed—Yeas 33, Nays 11, as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Adams, Atchison, Bright, Brodhead, Brown, Butler, Cass, Chase, Clay, Dodge of Wis., Dodge of Iowa, Douglas, Evans, Fitzpatrick, Geyer, Gwin, Hamlin, Houston, Hunter James, Johnson, Jones of Iowa, Mallory, Mason, Rusk, Sebastian, Shields, Slidell, Stuart, Sumner, Thompson of New Jersey, Toombs, Toucey, Walker, and Wells—36.

NAVS.—Messrs. Badger, Bell, Dawson, Fessenden, Fish, Foot, Gullette, Jones of Tenn., Pearce, Pratt, and Rockwell—11.

The title of the bill was so amended as to read, "A bill to reduce and graduate the price of the public lands to purchasers and actual settlers, and to grant pre-emption privileges in certain cases, and for other purposes."

The following are the Homestead provisions in Mr. Hunter's bill.

Sec. 8. That any free white person who is at the head of a family who has arrived at the age of twenty-one years, and is capable of holding lands under the laws of the State in which the lands lie, shall from and after the passage of this act, be entitled to enter one quarter section of vacant and unappropriated public lands and no more, which may at the time the application is made, be subject to private entry, or a quantity equal thereto, to be located in a body, if conforming with the legal subdivisions of the public lands.

Sec. 9.—That the person applying for the benefit of the eighth section of this act, shall, upon application to the Register of the Land Office in which he or she is about to make such entry, make affidavit before said Register that he or she is the head of a family, or is twenty-one years of age, and that such application is made for his or her exclusive use and benefit and those specially mentioned herein, and not, either directly or indirectly, for the use and benefit of any other person or persons whatsoever; and upon making the affidavit as herein required and filing it with the Register, he or she shall thereupon be permitted to enter the quantity of land specified; provided, however, that no certificate shall be given, or patent issued therefor, until the person or persons entitled to the land so entered shall have paid for the same twenty-five cents per acre, or if the lands have been in the market more than twenty years, twelve and a half cents per acre.

Its adoption over the Homestead bill of the House, was for the purpose of relieving the President from the dilemma in which his veto of the Ives Land bill would have placed him. It is hardly possible that any amount of casuistry would have preserved his consistency if after voting the latter he had signed the other. The result of the whole matter most likely will be to prevent the passage of any Homestead bill the present session, as it is not very probable that the House will agree to the Senate's substitute for its own bill.

WILL TAKE THE FIELD.—It is said that Douglas will take the field in his own State in favor of any candidate who will go for Nebraska and Whisky. No doubt he would be eloquent on both of these subjects. Nebraska he justly regards as his thunder, and all will admit that he is no stanger to whisky. We think he would feel himself at home on both subjects.

TEACHERS WANTED.

A TEACHER competent to give instruction in the Ancient Languages, and the higher branches of English Education, can find a good and desirable location as the Principal of the Glasgow Female Seminary, already established, with seventy-five pupils during the last session. Music, Drawing and Painting will be required. A commodious edifice for the school, with a Boarding House capable of accommodating from forty to fifty pupils, is the property of the Institution.

Married gentlemen only need apply. The income of the school has been from fifteen hundred to two thousand dollars per annum. Glasgow is a healthy location, with good society.

The next session will commence on the first Monday in September, when the teachers employed will be expected to take charge of the school. An early application is desired.
